

Below is a selection of artworks created by learners as a visual expression of personal perceptions of globalisation. These works form part of a research project conducted by Sean Cameron at a private school in the Helderberg region of the Cape Town metropole. The research project entitled: PERCEPTIONS OF GLOBALISATION: HOW HIGH SCHOOL LEARNERS PERCEIVE AND EXPRESS THEIR UNDERSTANDINGS OF GLOBALISATION was conducted as part of a master's degree MA (Art Education) through Stellenbosch University.

Image 1. Mixed media on paper

Image 2. Photomontage created from found images.

Image 3. Photomontage collage created from found images

Image 4. Photomontage collage created from found images

Image 5. Photomontage collage created from found images

Image 6. Photomontage collage created from found images

Image 7. Photomontage collage created from found images

Image 8. Photomontage collage created from found images.